

KILBURN GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

PARENTS' EVENING

Thursday, February 28th, 1929.

PROGRAMME.

Programme.

1. 7.45-8.45 Tour of Form Rooms, Workshop, Gymnasium, and Laboratories.
 2. 8.45-9.15 The Headmaster will speak on "The Parent, the Boy, and the School."
 3. 9.15-10.30 Light Refreshments and Informal Talks.
-

The School Bell will be rung at 8.45, when visitors are requested to proceed to the Creighton Hall. At the end of the talk coffee will be served at buffets in the following rooms, and Masters whose names are appended will be pleased to consult with Parents until 10.30 p.m. :—

Dining Room. Messrs. Ware, Westbury, Bowden, Thurston, Bentley, Davis, Burton, Hughes, H. Thompson.

Room 1. Messrs. Elowitz, Jones, Williams, Yarwood, Rhodes, Bond.

Room 2. Messrs. Gould, Peter, Potts, L. Thompson, Sharpe, Collins.

TOUR OF FORM ROOMS

GROUND FLOOR.

GYMNASIUM (Mr. BOND). A Physical Training lesson will be in progress with one of the Lower V Forms.

ROOM 7 (Mr. PETER). A small Swimming and Life-Saving Class at Land Drill in charge of F. V. Fordham.

ROOM 6 (Mr. DAVIES and Mr. WILLIAMS). A debate in French on "The Channel Tunnel." Chairman : G. Beach. Speakers from Forms UVA and UVB.

WORKSHOP (Mr. L. THOMPSON). Boys will be seen engaged in their practical work in wood and metal.

PHYSICS LABORATORIES (Mr. YARWOOD and Mr. POTTS). A selection of experiments from the following list will be in progress :

Making a Model Steelyard.

Effect of pressure on Boiling Point of water.

Relative conductivities of Metals.

Setting up with lenses, Simple Telescopes and Microscopes.

Methods of determining Frequency of a Tuning Fork.

Determination of Absolute Expansion of Mercury.

Demonstration of principles of

(a) The Accumulator.

(b) The Electric Motor.

(c) The Electric Dynamo.

ROOM 5 (Mr. GOULD). A small Greek section will be at work during the evening.

FIRST FLOOR.

HALL (Mr. COLLINS and Mr. RHODES).

(a) French Action Songs by boys of IIA.

(b) French and German Songs by boys of IIIC.

ROOM 12 (Mr. WESTBURY and Mr. JONES). Exhibition of Manuscript work done in connection with English Studies.

LIBRARY (Mr. WARE and Rev. C. H. HUGHES). Boys will be seen here engaged in elementary HISTORICAL RESEARCH. Subjects are chosen by the boys themselves, and they are encouraged to seek out relevant information from all possible sources. Guidance is given when requested both as to likely sources of information and on arrangement of materials.

ROOMS 13, 14, and Adjoining Corridors (Mr. THURSTON and Mr. BURTON). Here can be seen :—

Collection of Geological Specimens from various parts of the British Isles.

Instruments used in keeping K.G.S. Meteorological Records.

Maps, Charts, and Pictures used in illustrating lessons.

Junior boys making models from contour maps.

Boys drawing graphs of climatic and commercial statistics.

Maps and diagrams illustrating the geography of Willesden.

CHEMICAL LABORATORIES (Mr. BOWDEN and Mr. ELLOWITZ).

Practical work will be in progress in connection with :—

1. Combustion of Coal Gas.
 - (a) Burning of air in coal gas.
 - (b) Formation of explosive mixture of air and gas.
 - (c) " Striking back " of gas flame.
 - (d) Formation of acetylene when gas is " burning back."
 - (e) Structure of gas flame.
2. Analysis of Coal Gas.
 - (a) Absorption in Nitrometer.
 - (b) Explosion in Eudiometer.
3. Elementary Salt Analysis.

SECOND FLOOR.

ROOM 16 (Mr. HEBER THOMPSON).

(a) An exhibition of Drawings, Lino-cuts, Stencils, etc.

(b) Demonstration of Lino-cutting and printing. Stencilling and printing. Painted woodwork.

SATURDAY, MARCH 9th.

GRAND K.G.S. CONCERT

Tickets 2/4 (reserved) and 1/2 (unreserved).

Come and enjoy an evening of merry Kilburnian music !