K.G.S. SCHOOL SONG

Kilburn Grammarians, muster your forces,
Shoulder to shoulder, plucky and cool ;
Steady and true as the stars in their courses,
All for the honour and fame of the School.

Down with the bully, the braggart, the birker,
Hence with the laggard, the coward and fool,
Down with the shirker, and up with the worker,
All for the honour and fame of the School.

Prove to your rivals your mettle and fibre,
Firm at your wickets, straight for your goal,
Staunch as Horatius, who, back to the Tiber,
Took of the foemen his terrible toll.

Stand then, Kilburnians, stand with each other,
Hand over shoulder, eager and strong,
England your mother, each Briton your brother,
Fired with your spirit, shall chorus your song.

H. G. BONAVIA HUNT.

WHERE'ER YOU WALK.

Where'er you walk
Cool gales shall fan the glade,
Trees, where you sit,
Shall crowd into a shade;
Where'er you tread,
The blushing flow'rs shall rise,
And all things flourish
Where'er you turn your eyes.

—Congreve.

FULL FATHOM FIVE.

Full fathom five thy Father lies,
Of his bones are coral made,
Those are pearls that were his eyes,
Nothing of him that doth fade,
But doth suffer a sea change
Into something rich and strange.

Sea-nymphs hourly ring his knell,
Hark! Now I hear them,
Ding-dong, bell.

THE ROAD TO THE ISLES.

It's a far croonin' that is pulling me away
As take I wi' my cromak to the road,
The far Coolins are puttin' love on me
As I step I wi' the sunlight for my load.

REFRAIN.

Sure, by Tummel and Loch Rannoch and Lochaber I will go,
By heather tracks wi' heaven in their wiles;
If it's thinkin' in your inner heart braggart's in my step,
You've never smelt the tangle of the Isles.
Oh, the far Coolins are puttin' love on me,
As step I wi' my cromak to the Isles.

It's by Sheil Water the track is to the west,
By Aillort and by Morar to the sea,
The Cool Cresses I am thinkin' o' for pluck,
And bracken for a wink on Mother knee.

It's the blue Islands are pullin' me away,
Their laughter puts the leap upon the Lame,
The blue Islands from the Skerries to the Lews,
Wi' heather honey taste upon each name.

—Kenneth McLeod.
