K.G.S. SCHOOL SONG

Kilburn Grammarians, muster your forces,
Shoulder to shoulder, plucky and cool;
Steady and true as the stars in their courses,
All for the honour and fame of the School.

Down with the bully, the braggart, the birker,
Hence with the laggard, the coward and fool,
Down with the shirker, and up with the worker,
All for the honour and fame of the School.

Prove to your rivals your mettle and fibre,
Firm at your wickets, straight for your goal,
Staunch as Horatius, who, back to the Tiber,
Took of the foemen his terrible toll.

Stand then, Kilburnians, stand with each other,
Hand over shoulder, eager and strong,
England your mother, each Briton your brother,
Fired with your spirit, shall chorus your song.

H. G. BONAVIA HUNT

O CAPTAIN! MY CAPTAIN!

Poem by Walt Whitman      Music by Charles H. Lloyd

O Captain! My Captain! Our fearful trip is done,
The ship has weather'd every rack, the prize we sought is won,
The port is near, the bells I hear, the people all exulting,
While follow eyes the steady keel, the vessel grim and daring;
But O heart! heart! heart! O the bleeding drops of red!
Where on the deck my Captain lies, fallen, cold and dead.

O Captain! My Captain! Rise up and hear the bells;
Rise up—for you the flag is flung—for you the Bugle trills,
For you bouquets and ribboned wreaths—for you the shores a-crowding,
For you they call, the swaying mass, their eager faces turning;
Here, Captain! dear Father! This arm beneath your head!
It is some dream that on the deck you've fallen cold and dead.

My Captain does not answer, his lips are pale and still,
My father does not feel my arm, he has no pulse nor will;
The ship is anchor'd safe and sound, its voyage closed and done,
From fearful trip the victor ship comes in with object won;
Exult, O shores! and ring, O bells! But I with mournful tread,
Walk the deck my Captain lies, fallen, cold and dead.

BROTHER JAMES' AIR

Arranged Gordon Jacob

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want,
He makes me down to lie in pastures green,
He leadeth me, the quiet waters by,
He leadeth me, He leadeth me,
The quiet waters by.

My soul He doth restore again,
And me to walk doth make,
Within the Paths of Blessedness,
E'en for His own Name's sake,
Within the Paths of Blessedness,
E'en for His own Name's sake.

Yea, tho' I pass through shadowed vale,
Yet will I fear no ill, for Thou art with me,
And Thy Rod and Staff me comfort still.
Thy Rod and Staff, Thy Rod and Staff,
Me comfort still.

My table Thou hast furnished,
In presence of my foes;
My head with oil Thou dost anoint,
And my cup overflows.
My head Thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

RING OUT, WILD BELLS

Words by Tennyson

Music by Ch. Gounod

Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky,
The flying cloud, the frosty light!
The year is dying in the night:
Ring out, wild bells, and let him die!

Ring out the old, ring in the new.
Ring, happy bells, across the snow;
The year is going, let him go:
Ring out the false, ring in the true!

Ring out the grief that saps the mind,
For those that here we see no more:
Ring out the feud of rich and poor,
Ring in redress to all mankind!

Ring out the want, the care, the sin,
The faithless coldness of the times,
Ring out, ring out my mournful rhymes,
But ring the fuller minstrel in!

Ring out old shapes of foul disease;
Ring out the narrowing lust of gold;
Ring out the thousand wars of old,
Ring in the thousand years of peace!

Ring in the valiant man and free,
The larger heart, the kindlier hand;
Ring out the darkness of the land,
Ring in the Christ that is to be!
