

RECORDS RETAINED IN BRENT ARCHIVES

ORGANISATION REFERENCE: 19871

Brent Archives, based in the Willesden Library Complex, retain a considerable amount of memorabilia relevant to both Kilburn Grammar School and the Old Boys' Association.

Much of it is permanent display on the first floor of the library. The items identified in the following pages and can be viewed on application to the library staff.

It should be pointed out that the archives are not open on Fridays and it is suggested that anyone wishing to make use of the archive facilities should make an appointment to see a member of staff rather than arrive on the off-chance.

If any member of the Association has any memorabilia which is no longer required, the staff would be pleased to receive it. They would catalogue it and have it available in the archives for future generations.

KILBURN GRAMMAR SCHOOL 1897-2003

Kilburn Grammar School was opened in 1898 in Willesden Lane, as a choir school, by the Vicar of St Paul's, Kilburn, the Revd H G Bonavia Hunt. The first headmaster of the new school was Evan Evans, a former Senior Lecturer from Culham College. Oxford.

Although originally set up as a religious establishment, it served a local need for a boys' secondary school and eventually secured larger and more appropriate premises at 28 Cavendish Road and finally Salusbury Road, opposite the Brondesbury and Kilburn High School for Girls. In 1900, the year of the move, it became a Grammar School for Boys with 120 pupils enrolled.

In 1908 it came into the possession of Middlesex County Council and further enlarged in 1927. During the Second World War it was damaged and not fully rebuilt until later, in 1951-1952 and then its status as a Grammar School was removed after the introduction of the comprehensive system in 1967. During an interim period of uncertainty the school was known as Kilburn Senior High School, but was eventually amalgamated with Brondesbury and Kilburn High School for Girls in 1973, to become simply Brondesbury and Kilburn High School.

The records include logbooks, staff and admissions registers, songbooks, prospectuses of the school, souvenir programmes from school dramatic productions, charity and commemorative functions and parents evenings. There is also a collection of photographs and selected issues of the official School Magazine, "The Kilburnian" and school sports fixture and team lists. Additionally, there is also a substantial amount of memorabilia produced by the Old Boys Association, which was an official society with a newsletter, regular meetings and a calendar of sports and social events which are well documented.
