HEIDENRÖSLEIN.

Sah ein Knab' ein Röslein steh'n,
Röslein auf der Heiden,
War so jung und morgenschön!
Lief er schnell, es nah' zu seh'n,
Sah's mit vielen Freuden.

Röslein, Röslein, Röslein rot.
Röslein auf der Heiden!

Knabe sprach: Ich breche dich
Röslein auf der Heiden!
Röslein sprach: Ich steche dich,
Dasz du ewig denkst an mich,
Und ich will's nicht leiden!

Röslein, Röslein, u.s.w.

Und der wilde knabe brach
's Röslein auf der Heiden!
Röslein wehrte sich und stach,
Half ihm doch kein Weh und Ach,
Muszt 'es eben leiden.

Röslein, Röslein, u.s.w.

FRIENDSHIP.

My true love hath my heart,
And I, and I have his.
By just exchange, the one to the other given,
My heart is his, and mine he cannot miss.
There never was a better bargain driven.

His heart in me,
Keeps him and me in one.
My heart in him,
His thoughts and senses guides.
He loves my heart, for once it was his own,
I cherish his because in me it bides.
My true love hath my heart
And I have his.

Sir Philip Sidney.

A LAKE AND A FAIRY BOAT.

A Lake and a Fairy Boat
To sail in the moonlight clear,
And merrily we would float
From the dragons that watch us here.

Thy gown should be snow-white silk,
And strings of orient pearls,
Like gossamers dipp'd in milk,
Should twine with thy raven curls.

Red rubies should deck thy hands,
And diamonds should be thy dower.
But fairies have broke their wands,
And wishing has lost its power!

Thomas Hood.

ENGLAND.

This royal throne of kings, this sceptred island,
This earth of majesty, this seat of Mars,
This fortress, built by nature for her purpose,
Against infection and the hand of wars:

This demi-Paradise, this other Eden,
This precious stone set in a silver sea,
This blessed plot, this earth, this realm, this England,
We highly dedicate, O Lord, to Thee.

Grant, Lord, that England and her sister nations,
Together bound by the triumphant sea,
May be renowned through all recorded ages
For Christian service and true chivalry.

John of Gaunt's speech in "Richard II," paraphrased by Sir Esmé Howard, K.C.B., K.C.M.G.

THE MAYBELLS AND THE FLOWERS.

Young Maybells ring throughout the vale,
And sound so sweet and clear;
The dance begins, ye flowers all,
Come with a meery cheer.
The flowers, red and white and blue,
Merrily flock around,
Forget-me-not of heavenly hue,
And violets, too, abound.

Young Maybells play a sprightly tune,
And all begin to dance,
While o'er them smiles the gentle moon,
With soft and silv'ry glance.
This Master Frost offended sore,
He in the vale appear'd;
Young Maybells ring the dance no more,
Gone are the flowers sear'd.

But frost has scarcely taken flight,
When well-known sounds we hear;
The Maybells, with renew'd delight,
Are ringing doubly clear.
Now I no more can stay at home,
The Maybells call me too,
The flowers to the dance all roam,
Then why should I not go?

K.G.S. SCHOOL SONG

Kilburn Grammarians, muster your forces,
Shoulder to shoulder, plucky and cool;
Steady and true as the stars in their courses,
All for the honour and fame of the School.

Down with the bully, the braggart, the birker,
Hence with the laggard, the coward and fool,
Down with the shirker, and up with the worker,
All for the honour and fame of the School.

Prove to your rivals your mettle and fibre,
Firm at your wickets, straight for your goal,
Staunch as Horatius, who, back to the Tiber,
Took of the foemen his terrible toll.

Stand then, Kilburnians, stand with each other,
Hand over shoulder, eager and strong,
England your mother, each Briton your brother,
Fired with your spirit, shall chorus your song.

H. G. BONAVIA HUNT.
